HOW TO PLAY

Choose your player and cut it out. NOTE: This miniature paper version of you is not intended for real-life interviews, unless you're confident it's a better representation.

Beat your opponent to the job interview while collecting as many gifts as possible. NOTE: Remember, it's quantity over quality.

Close your eyes and place a finger on one of the numbers to the right. Advance that any spaces. NOTE: Corners don't count.

Finish without a gift and you must reverse direction until you acquire one.

CHOOSE YOUR PLAYER

- FREDERICO: Ever since his dog ran away he can't start work without a drink of whiskey and a good cry.
- TAMITHA: She likes to take naps under her desk or in the bathroom stall. Her career goal is to open Tamithaland (a theme park) or be an actress/singer.
- BLANCHE: She sweats when nervous, especially from her palms and upper lip. She is allergic to paper, staples, lifting, computer screens and not getting free lunches.
- HANK: He was fired from all but one (a hot dog stand he accidentally burned down) of his past eleven jobs.
